The petitioner was appointed as Anganvadi Helper on temporary basis. It was found that she could not have been appointed having regard to the number of vacancies. While terminating her services the respondents stated that her case will be considered favourably against the next arising vacancy. The petitioner submits that six vacancies have arisen subsequently, but there is apprehension in the mind of the petitioner that she may not be appointed.

2. Having regard to the averments made in the writ petition and the statement contained in Ext. P3 proceedings of the 4th respondent, there shall be an order directing the respondents to consider the case of the petitioner for appointment against one of the existing vacancies in accordance with law. No other directions are necessary.

The writ petition is disposed of.

K.K. DENESAN
JUDGE
